

Coastal Plains Scholarship Guidelines March 2022

Scholarship Details

(posted at <http://flawma.org/chapters/coastal-plains/>)

Up to $1000 award. Paid directly to student.

Payout expected by August 2022

Deadline – June 1, 2022

Scholarship Eligibility

- Scholarship is intended for students who have and will have a desire to apply their individual expertise to provide real-world environmental solutions
- Students must have a connection to the Florida Panhandle¹
 - Students of Florida Panhandle colleges and universities: NWFSC, PSC, UF-Milton, UWF, FSU, FAMU, TCC, etc.
 - Students who reside in Florida Panhandle but attending colleges and universities outside of Panhandle
- Winner of a scholarship must attend an AWMA chapter meeting (can be virtual if appropriate) prior to receiving funds
- Full Time Student will be priority, but parttime accepted
- Recipient shall only be awarded the scholarship one time
- Eligible Majors - Environmental, Sciences (including Science Education), Engineering or any physical science or law

Scholarship Application

- GPA – Submit copy of most recent transcript
- Essay – Describe your personal and professional environmental goals in 500 words or less.

Submission Address:

Please email cover letter, essay, to awmacoastalplains@gmail.com

As needed, please mail any hard copy information to:

Susan Kennedy
3420 Connell Drive
Pensacola, FL 32503

¹ Defined as the following boundaries: west of the Apalachicola River in Florida, North from the Gulf of Mexico to the Alabama state line, and to the east of the Alabama state line. Also includes former Big Bend Chapter boundaries, counties of Gadsden, Liberty, Franklin, Leon, Wakulla, Jefferson, Madison, Taylor, Hamilton, Suwannee, Lafayette and Dixie.